SIMPSON INDICTED.

The grand jury in Washington yesterof the motorboat Lotus, which was captized in the Potomac river May 26 last, in a collision with the steamer Angler, for manslaughter. The indictment charges Simpson with being responsible for the death of Sarah Neilson, who lost her life by drowning as a result of the collision.

This accident, it will be remembered, occurred on a Sunday night off Shepherd's opposite Alexandria. The Lotus was on her way to Washington, having taken two women aboard

CITY TO BE CLEANED UP

Health Officers to Start Next Monday on Making Alexandria Clean City

The work of making Alexandria a clean city is to begin next week commencing on Monday, it is the intention of the city health department, under the direction of Dr. E. A. Gorman, health officer and Dr. James J. Garvey, deputy health officer, to begin an active crusade against the dirty yards, alleys and stores in the city.

The health officers will have the cooperation of the Police force, the Civic Improvement League, under whose direction, a house to house canvass will be made for the purpose of public inspection of yards, cellars and alleys.
Vagrant lots are to receive some attention as well.

The Boy Scouts of Alexandria will probably be enlisted in support of the work, especially where their own yards are concerned. It is the desire of the health officials that every resident of the city take personal interest in clean up week and make every effort to gather all rubbish in their yards and cellars which is to be carted away as soon as provision can be made for the purpose by the health department.

TO OPEN HEADQUARTERS.

to attend, exercises which commence at 8 o'clock.

Schoeni yesterday arrested Charles Dick, colored, on the charge of breaking and robbing the postoffice at Victoria, Spotsylvania county. The accused was brought before U. S. Com-and held for the grand jury of the United States District Court. The

SOLDIERS AT LYCEUM.

All arrangements have been completed for the vaudeville show at Lyceum Wednesday, April 2, and a fine program has been arranged.
Particular mention is made of the series of tableaux representing historical events in history of Maryland. The costumes were designed and made by Sergt. Kuhn, a master gunner at the fort, and are true in every detail. The balance of program is equally good and shows excellent taste, all being directed by Chaplain Ferry. An open air concert will be held at 7:30 p. m., and a street parade at 5:30 p. m.

New Spring Millinery; Styles Be- coming to Every Face

With delightful changing from the picturesque and deftly posing of feathers, to simple drapes and ribbon tailored bows; charming variations in flower trimming—the hats are so full of style and the allure-ment of fashion that any type of face can be suited.

Models of Parisian designing, each one a distinct creation without a counterpart, imparting exclusiveness and that perfection of mode that fashion caters to with undiminished enthusiasm.

HATS of our own designing with character and distinctiveness seldom achieved except in the imported models. Each interpreted style tendency of newest vogue, accurately and artistically executed and brought to its most fashionable conclusion.

Of especial interest, amid the bewildering array of shapes and color treatments, is the showing of dainty Poke Bonnet models. These are fashioned of fine hemp, in black and pretty new spring shades. The trimming of flat ribbon bow, wreath of small flowers with band of velvet extending over the crown, gives a refined and charming effect of newness and individuality.
